Q. No.2: What is NEET All India Rank (AIR)?

Answer: All India Rank (AIR) given by National Testing Agency is based on rank among the successful candidates, of NEET UG 2019 on all India basis. This rank is unique for the candidate.

Q. No.3: What is the process of online allotment?

Answer:

- a. Registration for Counseling for eligible candidates as per published list in Round 1. This would be a fresh registration after being enrolled in pre-counseling.
- b. Exercising of Choices and Locking of choices in Round 1. Candidates are advised to exercise those choices only where the candidate will take admission if allotted. After getting allotment according to candidate's choice; if the candidate does not take admission in the allotted college, he/she will be out of counseling process for subsequent rounds.
- c. Process of Seat Allotment – Round 1 (this is computer software-driven process conducted by identified agency).
- d. Round 1 Result Publication.
- e. Reporting at the allotted Medical/Dental College by the candidates in 1st Round for admission. If the candidate does not take admission in the allotted college, he/she will be out of counseling process for subsequent rounds.

- f. Allotted candidates have to exercise choice for willingness to participate in subsequent rounds during admission at the allotted institute. If the candidate exercised choice for 'not willing', candidate will not be able to participate in subsequent round/s and his/her seat to which the candidate is already admitted will be retained.

Q. No. 4: When will online allotment process for the current year start?

Answer: Online allotment process will start on date as per counseling schedule available on the website www.wbmcc.nic.in

Q.No.5:Do I have to report to any counseling centre for registration or choice filling?

Answer: No. Online registration and choice filling can be done from place of convenience (including from home) using internet.

Q. No. 6: Do I require any documents to get registered on-line?

Answer: You will be required to fill up some of the information that you have given on your application form, that you filled and submitted to National Testing Agency (NTA), New Delhi. Please keep information that you have furnished on application form confidential, and do not share with anybody. If somebody else uses that information, he/she can misuse your online registration and prevent you from taking part in online allotment process. Please note that on registration window of online allotment process, you have to fill in exactly same spelling, numbers etc as you have filled in your application form.

Q. No. 7: How do I get password for logging in?

Answer: During the process of online registration you will generate password as per password policy, which will be shown to you when you register and create your own password. The formation of password is discussed in the USER MANUAL for registration and choice filling as published in www.wbmcc.nic.in website.

Candidates are advised to keep the password that they have created, confidential to them till the end of the counseling/admission process. You can change the password after creating. Password is very important for participating in online allotment process. Sharing of password can result in its misuse by somebody else, leading to even exclusion of genuine candidate from online allotment process.

Q. No. 8: How much time will I be given to join the allotted college?

Answer: Candidates allotted seats will be required to join the allotted College/course within stipulated time which is mentioned in counseling schedule. However, candidates are advised to join as early as possible and not to wait for last day of joining, due to different schedule of holiday (including local holidays) / working hours in various Medical / Dental Colleges. In some of the colleges, 2-3 days' time is required to complete admission formalities. Therefore, candidates are advised to contact allotted college immediately after declaration of result of counseling allotment process, to know the details.

If candidate fails to join the allotted Medical/Dental College within stipulated time, then the allotted seat will be cancelled and candidate will not be eligible for further Round(s) of the Counseling. Please note that under no circumstances date of joining can be extended by the WBMCC.

Q.No. 11: Is there any restriction for filling up number of choices of Institution (College) (and courses i.e. MBBS and BDS) in choice filling form?

Answer: No, you can give as many choices as you wish during online choice filling depending upon available choices as per caste and merit and whether the candidate is eligible for State Quota and Private management quota both or Private management quota only.
However choices should be in order of candidates' preference.

Q.No.12. Is it necessary to fill up the choices and lock the choices to get seat allotted? Or I will be allotted seat automatically from left over seats?

Answer: After online registration (registration is compulsory to take part in online allotment process during specified registration period), you have to fill in choice of Institutions/colleges/courses in order of your preference. Once choice is filled in, it can be modified before locking it. During the choice locking period, it is necessary to lock the choices to get a print of your submitted choices. If candidate does not lock the choice submitted by him/her, it will be automatically locked at stipulated time of last date of choice locking.

If you don't register you will not be able to fill choice. If you do not fill in choices, you will not be allotted any seat.

Important:

Don't wait till the last minute to Register and Lock your choices and to take a printout. Please go through your submitted choices before locking, as once you lock the choices they cannot be modified or changed even if you have made a mistake. It may result in allotment of a seat which you never wanted.

Q.No. 13: Is it necessary to join allotted Medical/Dental College to get chance to participate in next round (2nd)?

Answer: Yes, candidates are required to join allotted institution/college and complete the admission formalities then only candidate can exercise option to participate in next round(s) at allotted college, during admission process.

Q. No. 14: If I opt for willingness for participation for 2nd round during admission in 1st round and exercise fresh choices in 2nd round, is it necessary to join at college newly allotted during second round? Or in case I change my decision of upgrading choice, can I continue study in college allotted through first round of allotment?

Answer: In case candidate is allotted seat during the second round of allotment process, the seat allotted during the first round will be automatically cancelled immediately (and allotted to somebody else) and candidate will have to join the college/seat allotted during second round after obtaining online generated relieving letter from college allotted in Round- 1. If candidate does not join the college/seat allotted during the second round, within stipulated period, as per schedule, from the date of allotment, candidate will forfeit his/her allotted seat and will not be considered for subsequent rounds of seat allotment. Seat can also be up-graded in the same college (same course) by change of category (i.e. ST/SC/OBC A/OBC B to UR) in such a case also the candidate has to take fresh admission on the up-graded seat, as per procedure.

Q. No 15: If I give option to participate in second round at the time of joining college from first round allotment, but later change my decision and want to continue study at already allotted Medical /Dental College, what is the procedure to avoid change (cancellation) of already allotted college/seat?

Answer: If a candidate does not submit fresh choice(s) during the choice submission period before the second round of counseling, such a candidate will retain the already allotted seat.

Q. No. 16: If I forget my password that I have created during the process of registration, how to retrieve it?

Answer: To retrieve the forgotten password, system facilitates the following process:
