Candidates who have deposited their original documents with any other Institute/ College/University and come for admission with a certificate stating that "their original certificates/documents are deposited with the Institute/College/University” shall not be allowed to take admission in allotted Medical/Dental College.

Q. 10. What are the choice filling options for open candidates or in-service candidates or management candidates?

Ans.:

State Quota seats:-

All eligible candidates for State Quota seats are allowed to exercise choice for all seats in State Quota irrespective of caste (UR, SC, ST, OBC-A, OBC-B, OBC); Status (PC or Not PC) and Category (Open or In-service). Scope of filling up choices is for one time only during the process of counseling.

Further it is mentioned that the seat matrix containing the actual vacancy (as stood on 22.03.2017) in Round 1 according to caste, status and category will be published on 05.04.2017.

Candidates are allowed to fill choice in the seats including virtual seats that do not exist in the seat matrix of Round 1.

These choices will be considered in further round/s expecting:-

- A. Addition of new seats
- B. Return of vacant All India Quota seats
- C. Conversion of seats between caste, status and category .
- D. Addition of seats due to non joining/surrender/non allotment in earlier round or any other cause

Candidates are directed to be alert and cautious in exercising of choice keeping in mind the following points in particular:-

- Candidates must exercise choices in order of his/her priority. Scope of filling up choices is for one time only throughout the process of counseling.
- Candidates should not fill such choice where he/she is not interested to take admission if allotted else the candidate will be out of the counseling process and liable for penal action.
- Candidates are directed to fill such choice where he/she is interested to take admission even though that seat is not included in the actual seat matrix of Round 1 expecting new addition, return of AIQ seats, conversion of seats and addition of seats due to other cause in subsequent round/s.
- Candidates are directed to take note of the above criteria in filling of choices as exercising of fresh option will not be allowed in the subsequent round/s.
- In Round 1, allotment will be done according to the actual seat matrix of Round 1.
- Those who are allotted seats in Round 1 must take admission in the allotted institute else they will be out of counseling process.
- During admission in Round 1, the candidates have to exercise willingness to participate in subsequent round/s for choice up gradation. Else their choices will not be considered for up gradation in the subsequent round/s and they will retain the seat of Round 1. If any candidate is not willing to upgrade his choices ,s/he will opt for "no" in the willingness for upgradation.. In that case his/her admitted seat will be retained.
- The candidates who take admission after getting allotment in Round 1 and exercise willingness to participate in subsequent round/s, their higher choices exercised in round 1(both for real and virtual seats) as per his/her priority will be considered for up gradation in subsequent round/s.
- The candidates who were not allotted any seat in Round 1, their all choices (both for real and virtual seats) will be considered for fresh allotment in subsequent round/s.
- The candidates willing to fill choice in the State Quota seats of Private Medical/Dental Colleges must be sure about the fee structure of the institution because they have to take admission in that institution after depositing requisite fee if allotted else they will be out of the counseling process.

Example is cited for clarification:-

- An Unreserved (UR) candidate may exercise choice in Round 1 in seats of SC/ST/OBC and PC besides the UR seat according to his/her priority

- Similarly a reserved candidate may opt for choice in Round 1 in all caste reserve seats and also in unreserved seats and PC seats according to his /her priority.
- Open category candidates may give choice for in-service category seats and vice versa.
- Both open and in service category candidates may give choice for all seats shown irrespective of caste, category, PH status and the and the seats shown in seat matrix of round 1

Management Quota seats:-

- All candidates eligible for State Quota seats may exercise choice for Private Management Quota seats in Round 1.
- The candidates willing to fill choice in the Management Quota seats of Private Medical/Dental Colleges must be sure about the fee structure of the institution because they have to take admission in that institution after depositing requisite fee if allotted else they will be out of the counseling process and liable for penal action.
- All candidates eligible for State Quota seats have to list the choices of State Quota and Management Quota seats (if wishes to opt for) in order of priority in a single choice list. Candidates eligible for Private Management Quota seats only, have to fill choices of Management Quota in order of priority.
- If any candidate is not willing to admit in "Private Managed Quota" seat, he/she should not opt for such seat, otherwise, if s/he does not admit after allotment, his candidature will be forfeited and other penal measure will be initiated.

In service candidates can give choice as per the TR Rule 2015 for Medical candidates and TR Rule 2013 for Dental candidates as uploaded in the counseling website www.wbmcc.nic.in for further reference.

Q. No.11: Is it necessary to fill up the choices and lock the choices to get seat allotted? Or I will be allotted seat automatically from available seats?

Ans.: After online registration (registration is compulsory to take part in online allotment process), you have to fill in choice of subjects and Institutions/colleges in order of preference. Once choice is filled in, it can be modified before locking it. During the choice locking period it is necessary to lock the choices to get a print of your submitted choices. If candidate does not lock the choice submitted by him/her, submitted choices by him/her will be automatically locked on notified date at notified time, however you will be allowed to take a print of your choices after that but you will not be permitted to modify your choices.

If you don't register and fill in any choice, you will not be allotted any seat. If you register and do not fill in any choice, you will not be allotted any seat.

IMPORTANT:

Don't wait till the last minute to lock your choices and to take a printout. Please go through your submitted choices before locking as once you lock the choices the same cannot be modified or changed even if you have made a mistake. Mistake in filling choices may result in allotment of a seat which you never wanted.

Q. No.12: Is it necessary to join allotted Medical/Dental College to get chance to participate in next round (2nd round)?

Ans.: Yes, in case a seat is allotted during the Round-1st, candidate is required to join allotted institution/college and complete the admission formalities then only candidate can exercise option to participate in next round (2nd Round).

Please note that in case you do not give option to participate in Round-2 at the time of joining of seat allotted during Round -1, you will not be considered eligible for participating in Round-2 (i.e. for up-gradation of your choice).

Q. No.13: What is second round of online allotment process?

Ans.: Second round of online allotment process is Choice up gradation of already submitted choices in Round 1.
