Memo No. COE/UHS/ 587 /2017

Dated 26.05.2017

Urgent notice NEET PG and NEET MDS West Bengal counseling 2017

The candidates who are upgraded to other medical or dental colleges are not required to take back their original documents from earlier admitted college. They may get admission to their newly allotted college by depositing the original receipt of their deposition of documents in earlier admitted college. The college authorities are advised to issue a fresh receipt that the original receipt of the earlier college is received to the candidates.

However, the freshly allotted candidates whose documents are deposited in WBUHS, have to show their original receipt of document deposition in the WBUHS during admission in the allotted institute. The college authorities are advised to issue a fresh receipt that the original receipt of the WBUHS is received to the candidates.

The candidates who are upgraded from one State Govt. institution to another State Govt. institution are neither to take back the deposited fees from the earlier institution, nor to pay afresh to the newly admitted institute. However any such candidate upgraded from Diploma course to Degree Course have to pay the remaining amount of fees to the institute for admission.

For up gradation from any other institution to State Govt. institute or vice versa, the candidates have to pay at the upgraded institute afresh.

If any candidate is not able to submit the discontinuation bond and service (indemnity) bond at the time of admission, they have to give an undertaking that they will deposit the bonds by the next working day.
